To Whom It May Concern,

The National Homeland Security Association, Inc sponsors the National Homeland Security Conference. The conference is an annual meeting of local Homeland Security and emergency management professionals from all over the Nation who meet to discuss best practices and lessons learned among the larger homeland security communities. This year, the National Homeland Security Association hosted the 2013 National Homeland Security Conference from June 4-7, 2013 in Los Angeles, California.

Each year at the conference, the Association sells Challenge coins reflecting the conference city. In recognition of the Boston Marathon bombing and support for the victims, the Association elected to create a special memorial edition and donate all proceeds to the One Fund Boston charity.

Attached you will find a check in the amount of $5,000 raised from selling the National Homeland Security Memorial Challenge coins. We hope this donation will make a small difference in the lives of those affected by the tragic events in Boston.

Please provide a tax receipt to the following address:

Once again, I hope you will be able to make good use of this money.
